COMMUNITY DINNER AND SQUARE DANCE

On August 11, 1972, The Cabin John Citizens Association will hold a dinner and square dance for all of the citizens and friends of this community. The Palisades Pool has invited us to use pool facilities for this summer event which will consist of:

1. An excellent feast prepared by Billy White and expert assistants 6 to 7:30 P. M.
Adults - $2.00 Children under 12 - $1.25.
2. A square dance for youth of all ages with a yen for toe-tapping music and good fun with friends.
3. A sneak preview of the Cabin John Community Plan. which will give each of you a chance to review a number of proposals, talk to Cabin John residents who have worked so hard for all of us, and view maps of the "Cabin John triangle" in the future.

Remember the time, the place and the fun that all of the citizens of this community will have on what promises to be a memorable occasion. Swimming will be available to all who attend, conversation with friends on the patio will be pleasant, you can tell committee chairmen of your thoughts on Cabin John and its future, and swing your partner.

FRIDAY EVENING - AUGUST 11

DINNER - 6:00 to 7:30

SQUARE DANCING 8:00 to 10:00

-- YOU*ALL COME --

CRAB FEAST JULY 22

That great Cabin John institution, the annual Home Study Crab Feast, will highlight next weekend's pleasures. Dinner will be served from 4 to 9 p.m. at 21 Carver Road. Either crabs or chicken make delicious eating. Prices: $6 a family (parents and kids under 10), $2.50 for one adult $1 for every child 10-12.

All money raised at this happy event will be used to send Cabin John children to local camps. A Bake Sale will be held at the same time. Dinner may be eaten on the scene or taken out. Donations of food or cash will be gratefully accepted.

On past Crab Feast days we have had a shower or two, but it has never stopped the crowds from coming. So whatever the weather, plan to come and have a delicious dinner and help pay for a wonderful camp experience for the town's children.

It would be helpful to the food preparers if you would buy tickets in advance from Celeste Swedenburg, Karen Senger, Diane Heflin, or Susan Vogt. Bill White and Celeste Swedenburg are masterminding the whole affair.

POST OFFICE CHANGE

The Post office just won't be the same without Laura McKelvey's hand on the tiller. Mrs. McKelvey has retired and we all will miss her. Her replacement is hardly a brand new face though, since Mrs. Shirley Shuler has been helping Mrs. McKelvey for 14 years.

Mrs. McKelvey's retirement made me rummage around my file for a poem I published exactly two years ago, in the third issue of the Village News. Someone in Cabin John Had written it and it goes like this:

OUR LITTLE POST OFFICE

Have you been by
The house on the hill
Where the colors fly proudly
At the wind's will?

In a small room
Three ladies about
From morning to noon
And evening thereabout

Our mail handling,
With care and proficiency,
'Tis time we are saluting
Our ladies, gratefully.

THANK YOU

Mrs. McKelvey
Mrs. Shuler
Mrs. Clark

GARDEN COLUMN

Due to an overly full June issue of the Village News, I was unable to include Mrs. Jessup's wonderful garden column. However, for those of you, like myself, who enjoy reading it, even if we don't often get trowel in hand, here it is. I did get updated Sick Plant dates from the extension Service.

JUNE GARDEN CHORES

June is known variously as the Summer Moon, the Strawberry Moon, and the Moon of the Wild Rose. This is the month of heightened inflorescence. Black-Eyed Susans, Chicory, Elderberries, Soapweed, Butterfly Weed, and Viburnums are beginning to bloom in the wild. In the garden Roses are at their best and the perennial border is coming into its own. Peonies, Rhododendrons, Coreopsis and Hollyhocks are in bloom.

This should be the time to sit back and enjoy the fruits of our labor but after the heavy and continuous rains this spring there is a tremendous amount of garden work to do.

Watch for diseases and insect pests and wage constant warfare to rout the enemies before they are well established.

Be observant at all times for signs of infection by disease and invasion by insects. Get a correct diagnosis and apply appropriate remedies. Your Montgomery County Cooperative Extension Service will make diagnoses and recommend treatments if you will take good samples of affected plants to the Sick Plant Clinic as follows:

July 26 -- 2:30 - 4:30 pm and
6:30 - 8:30 pm
Extension Office, Gaithersburg

August 9 -- 2:30 - 4:30 pm and
6:30 - 8:30 pm
Aspen Hill Library

The young of many kinds of scale insects are hatching this month and being soft bodied are easily reached by less potent chemicals. The nymphs of San Jose scale, Oyster Shell scale, Fiorina scale and several others can be destroyed by a Malathion spray between the fifth and 15th of June.

Bagworms on Juniper and Arborvitae and aphids on Roses, Chrysanthemums and Crabapples can also be controlled with Malathion.

Examine your Cherry trees for tent caterpillars, Spray the foliage with lead arsenate or where possible cut off and burn the tents.

The Japanese beetle adults emerge this month, copulate immediately and start laying eggs. The only control is persistent spraying of the foliage on which the grubs feed. Apply Chlordane at the rate of 10 lbs. of the 72% per 1000 sq. ft.

Weed growth is active, especially so after the rainy spring. The woodland plants such as Jack-in-the-Pulpit, Wild Ginger, Dame's Rocket, Wild Phlox, and May Apples have invaded the garden. These must be ruthlessly pulled up if you want room for your cultivated plants. The usual broad-leaved weeds of the lawn such as dandelion and plantains are easily destroyed by an application of 2-4-D.

Now is the time to plant Chrysanthemum cuttings. By setting them out before June 15, they can stand two or three pinchings in order to produce bushy plants by August 1 when all pinching should cease and buds allowed to develop.

Tender summer-flowering bulbs such as Ismenes, Caladiums, Tigridias and Begonias may be planted now. Continue making of Gladioli at two-week intervals up to the end of the month.

Theresa P. Jessup.

DIRECTED THANK YOUS

Diane Heflin would like to thank those people who worked so hard on the Cabin John Directory. For calling:

- Maryanne Wilson
- Janet Dence
- Liz Beams
- Jo Alexander
- Janet Hutchinson
- Susan Vogt

Also: The Office of Community Development for typing the master list; Tom Brown for the original house owners list; Gladys Richardson for the school list; John and Pearl Fraser for Polks Directory; Judy Toth for the precinct list; and anyone else who also helped, or offered to help. Apologies to those who wished to be included but weren't.

ST. ANDREWS SUMMER SCHEDULE

The ST. Andrews Methodist Church at River and Goldsboro Roads will be having a summer schedule through September. Morning worship begins at 10 am and the whole family is invited to worship together. A nursery for tots under 5 will be provided.

There will be an antique show in the fall - over the 20,21,22 of Sept, so watch for details in the next issue.

RECEPTION HONORS EDITH ARMSTRONG

The Potomac Valley Homemakers had a reception at the Gardens Community Center for Mrs. Edith Armstrong during her recent visit. Mrs. Armstrong was the life of the party, as she read a poem and reminisced about the good old days. Her daughter-in-law, Claire, is reprinting the History of Cabin John to be sold at the Potomac Church Fair. A great time was had by all!

CHILDREN'S PAINTING EXHIBIT AT CABIN
JOHN VISUAL STUDIES WORKSHOP

A UNIQUE PLAN FOR YOUR FUTURE

A special thing has been happening in Cabin John for the last year which places our community in a class by itself in the United States. Volunteer committee members have devoted their talents and hundreds of hours of their time in the effort to develop a community plan for Cabin John.

The purpose of the plan is to provide positive guidelines for keeping the best which our community has to offer and improve those things which will make it better. Of principal interest is the establishment of acceptable uses for the undeveloped land within the triangle without changing the character of the area. Other efforts will be made to improve housing, roads, educational opportunities at all levels, and the environment in which we live. The task has not been an easy one, and it still needs the vital inputs and ideas which I hope each of you will feel free to make at any time.

In addition the plan will need the firm and continuing support of all Cabin John citizens to make it possible of fulfillment. Certain elements of the present proposal will be long range in nature, but each of you will have an opportunity to judge for yourselves at our coming dinner and dance on August 11, 1972 at the Palisades Pool. Preliminary phases of the community plan will be available for your inspection and comment on that evening between food, fun, and festivities.

Mr. Tom Brown, the planner assigned to Cabin John by the county, has stated that this effort by citizens of this community is one of the few comprehensive planning programs being carried out in cities of any size in this country today. If we can succeed in developing this plan, and carry out significant portions of it toward the betterment of Cabin John, we will have achieved a goal which many communities have sought, but few have accomplished.

The eyes of county planners, other communities, and land developers are on you and Cabin John. They want to see if we truly can develop a workable solution to our own problems, and realize the potential of the "golden triangle" before someone from outside forces their desires on us whether we like it or not. I believe the quality of our lives depends -- and rightly so -- on what we do as a community. I urge you to support this effort of self determination by participating in the development and realization of the Cabin John Community Plan -- It must be done now.

See you on August 11.

Ed Winslow
President, Cabin John
Citizens Association

The students whose works were displayed at the Cabin John Visual Studies Workshop exhibited more than talent. Their pictures are examples of each student's ability to plan and carry out a project with paint and canvas to create a design, reproduce what they see, or express their imaginative ideas.

The paintings ranged from very realistic to very abstract in a wide variety of colors (they learn to mix their own.) Most important, the children who participated showed their ability to produce with their minds, hands, and eyes, something of themselves.

Constance Bergfors Herdeck, the director of the workshop, will be offering lessons in drawing and painting for adults and teenagers beginning on September 20. Prospective students may call 229-7367 for information on classes and fees.

WATER BILL TOO HIGH?

The Washington Suburban Sanitary Commission (WSSC) would like to provide the 450 homes of the Cabin John Community with a water saving device which will reduce the water each toilet uses each time it is flushed from 5 to 2 gallons. This 60% savings in water used for this purpose, will be achieved by the installation of a small device in each toilet tank.

The device and the installation will be provided FREE to all Cabin John citizens who will permit its installation. No strings are attached - you simply save money on your water bill -- not 60% however since obviously you use water for many other purposes.

The Citizens Association has given an estimate to the WSSC that at least 300 homes in Cabin John area will permit this water saving device to be installed free in their homes. We hope that everyone will give the device a try for the purposes of this test. YOU LOSE NOTHING and stand to save on your water bill.

The WSSC will plan to install these devices on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday -- August 23 through 26. The installer will identify himself, quickly place one device in each toilet tank, and courteously leave. There will be no mess and no operating problem.

If you do not wish to save money with this device, please call 229-6479, and we will try to see that WSSC does not stop at your house. If you are approached and do not wish the device you may refuse. This will not help to conserve badly needed water, however, so we urge you to accept this opportunity.

Cabin John Resident Produced Three 'Smith Special' Autos

By Morris Fradin

Wheeling and dealing with autos for 65 years, Charles Reginald Smith knows more about road scorchers than most motorists in the Virginia-Maryland-Washington area. He even produced three "Smith Special" motorcars 61 years ago, keeping one for his honeymoon trip to then far-off Hagerstown, Md.

He had a flat tire then and, ironically, also when he drove his wife, Gladys, to their Golden Wedding Anniversary celebration 7 years ago.

A retired hotel maintenance superintendent, Smith also belongs to the Antique Automobile Club of America. He has rebuilt, owned, and paraded three air-cooled Franklins, a Marmon, and a Templar. His favorite photo shows him seated at the wheel of a restored Franklin 1925 touring car, its hickory spokes flashing in the sun. Smith discovered this classic vehicle in a barn, beneath a heap of hay, acorns, and chicken, squirrel, and mouse nests.

A handsome green 1923 Franklin sedan, restored by Smith and his son, Beebe, was purchased by the National Museum for permanent exhibition in Washington.

Smith was born in Washington 84 years ago in the horse-and-buggy days of gas mantles, iceboxes, and "Chic Sales." He lives with his wife in the same Dutch Colonial honeymoon house he constructed 57 years ago in Cabin John Park.

Smith started his automotive hobby by rebuilding and riding pop-pop motorbikes in 1906, shortly after President "Teddy" Roosevelt began his second term. Later, Smith scorched the dirt lanes around Washington in horseless carriages. "At 20 miles an hour," he recalls, "those rutty roads sure gave us some mean, jolting rides!"

When 23 years old, Smith chauffeured westward a 1908 Cole 30, previously owned by President William Howard Taft. But instead of chugging into Denver as planned, Smith's employer was hospitalized in Indiana and "Reggie" headed for Detroit. There, he collected and purchased axles, wheels, radiators, bucket seats, and other auto parts at an auction sale.

Back in Washington, he assembled and sold two 4-cylinder "Smith Specials," keeping a third one as the honeymoon car.

Until recently, Smith had a

1920 Templar and a 1932 Chevy among other unrestored cars, engines, and miscellaneous parts under canvas behind his home.

But he now restricts his activities to a small machine shop building jammed with lathes, drills, and bicycle components. Here, he still keeps the neighborhood—and his many grandchildren—on wheels.

ROAD-SCORCHING—Gladys and Charles Reginald Smith are ready for touring in a "modern" replica of the honeymoon vehicle the groom built 61 years ago.

LITTLE FALLS LIBRARY NOTES

The book discussion to be held on Friday July 28 at 1:30 p.m. will be William Blatty's The Exorcist. No book discussion is planned for August.

Children's room activities are as follows:
July 18th, 10:30 a.m., preschool story time.

July 19th and July 26, 1:30 p.m., story hour and penny theater for children aged 6-10 years.

August 2nd, 10:30 a.m., preschool story time.

Pre-register at the library or call 320-5266.

HOTEL OWNER DIES

On May 31, Mary E. Bobinger, of 6106 Howard Avenue, Glen Echo died at the Potomac Valley Nuesing Home. She was the owner of the old Cabin John Bridge Hotel here for a number of years after the death of William H. Bobinger, her husband, in 1927.

The hotel was noted for its beautiful gardens and for its elegance and drew notables from Washington to dine and enjoy the amusement park. The hotel was located on MacArthur Boulevard on the South side of the bridge, and remnants of the sidewalk may be seen there today.

RECREATION CENTER NEWS

The Cabin John Recreation Center has a variety of activities planned for throughout the summer, including ball games, track tournaments, and Friday afternoon movies for children. Alice in Wonderland will be presented at Shady Grove on the 26th of July, and the Recreation Center is planning to attend, depending on the number of participants. The cost is $1.75. On the fourth of August, an overnight trip to Sugarloaf Mountain is planned for children 9 years and up. Counselors will be on duty, and there will be a small fee for the trip, depending on the number of children who go.

For further information on these and other activities at the Recreation Center, visit or call 229-9828.

CITIZEN CONCERNS

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT GLEN ECHO ?

Following is a list of weekend activities planned at Glen Echo Park for the month of July.

The carrousel is not the only thing going at Glen Echo. Other weekend activities include craftsmen working in open workshops, and craft sales (also on weekdays). Easily accessible and inexpensive classes in crafts and painting are available throughout August. What's happening at Glen Echo has potential for becoming more grand than the broken rides and aged buildings could have provided in the "old days," with public support and good management.

WE NEED DELIVERERS !!!!

Some of our faithful deliverers are beginning to accumulate school activities and other interests to the point where it is difficult to also have time to deliver the Village News. I think its time to break in a few new deliverers. We pay 1¢ per copy delivered, and most routes average about 50 to 75 papers. If you're interested call Susan Vogt at 229 -6479.

The Executive Board of the CJ Citizens Association met on July 11 and considered the following matters.

On June 15 Ed Winslow appeared at the Board of Appeals hearing on the Palisades Swimming Pool request for changes. Ed reported the votes of the association on each of the requested changes. The Board of Appeals granted all requested changes to the Pool, including the change in classification from community pool to private pool. One stipulation in the Board of Appeals order requires that the Pool give notice to the president of the Citizens Association if any change in the policy of providing twice-weekly free swimming to the community were being considered.

We are considering designing and issuing a Cabin John calender featuring special areas of interest--history, cultural resources, civic opportunities, etc.

Using the newly prepared CJ directory, we will organize a telephone tree, so that all citizens can be quickly contacted on any matter of community interest.

Tuchey's Restuarant was closed some time ago on violations of health code and liquor serving code. As the month penalty ends, the establishment will open again. Next spring when the license renewal comes up, any citizens who object to its continuance should register this objection with the Liquor Control Board. Win Shaw--6186--will be glad to hear from you about this.

The county wants to put a sewage treatment plant somewhere along the Cabin John Creek drainage basin. This should alleviate the pollution condition.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

With one of the contributions to the Village News came this note which I thought I would share. In part it reads:

"Maybe you could mention in your paper since school will soon be out and it will be worse then. Small children ride their bikes on Tomlinson Ave. a lot and quite a bit of traffic goes up and down there at rush hour. (and to and from the pool, editor) Some of the kids are too small for their bikes and are not traffic wise in the way they ride and are going to get hurt. Also the teenagers on mini-bikes which are illegal on the road. Some of them have dogs following them which makes it worse for the drivers. Dogs are not allowed to run loose. Some day I am afraid I will loose my temper and shoot some of these dogs after they knock over garbage cans and use the yard and flower beds for a toilet. I am not running a public toilet for dogs. People should keep them home or on a leash."

Does this letter pertain to your family?

RECIPE OF THE MONTH

MARINATED FLANK STEAK

- 3 or 4 oz. flank steak per person
- 1/4 cup oil (peanut or olive)
- 1 dash wine (dry red or white) optional
- 2 Tablespoons parsley flakes
- 1 chopped onion medium size
- 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder or 1 clove chopped
- 1/4 teaspoon thyme
- salt
- pepper

Salt and pepper the steak on each side and sprinkle with parsley, garlic and thyme. Pour the oil in a shallow pan not much deeper than the meat. Add t the wine, if used, and place the steak in pan. Cover with chopped onion and let sit for marinate for at least 2 hours, the longer the better. Turn the steak several times during this period. Remove from the refridgerator 1 hour before cooking time. Broil to taste inside or on charcoal. If done indoors, add marinade a few minutes before cooking is finished and pour over the meat for serving. 20 minutes indoors is truly Well done. Cut across the grain on a slant in as thin slices as possible and you will have a marinated london broil.

PTA NEWS

The June PTA Executive Committee meeting concerned itself with several interesting topics. Kathy Lopez, Health and Safety Chair'n presented the recommendation of her committee that the PTA support the inclusion of the Life Science and Human Development Program into the 5th and 6th grade curriculum next year. In the fall, the materials will be presented to the parents.

Darris and Jim Plumb will co-chair the Evaluation: Report Card Committee and will be working thru the summer for presentation in the fall to the parents.

The model school team, now housed at North Chevy Chase Elem. will be invited to come to Clara Barton next winter to explain their program and how it is being implemented.

There will be several staff changes at Clara Barton next year. Marsha Katzen, a graduate of the U. of Md., will join the primary teaching staff here. She has been teaching in an ungraded school at Cedar Grove.

David Freeberg, who has been teaching in Pennsylvania, will be teaching the one combined 4th 5th and 6th grade class at Clara Barton next year.

Margie Lee, who has done such a marvelous job in the cafeteria this year, will be leaving Clara Barton to go to the newly opened cafeteria at Concord Special School. Replacing Mrs. Lee will be Mary Barber, a longtime resident of 81st St. Mrs. Barber has been running the kitchen at Fernwood Elem.

Financial Report

In addition to the many individual contributions to the Village News last month, two organizations are to be thanked for very generous donations. The Cabin John VFW gave a check for $25 which was much appreciated. And the Cabin John Gardens Inc. sent a check for $50 which will pay for a whole month by itself. All totaled we collected $185.00 last month.

So far, then, our financial tally is thus:

Collections
May:	$233.00
June:	$185.00
	$418.00
Expenses
May Issue:	$ 42.00
Delivery	$ 5.00
Mailing	$ 3.00
	$50.00

We have only got $180 to go to reach our goal of $600, so those of you who have forgotten to contribute can make the difference... NOW.
