FREE SWIMMING TO START FOR CABIN JOHN CHILDREN

Once again, under the auspices of the Cabin John Citizens Association, Cabin John children will be able to swim free at the Palisades Swimming Pool. The community is very grateful to Palisades for making this possible.

Free swim hours are from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays. Children under eight must be accompanied by an adult. Children need a permission slip from their parents to take part in the program.

Insurance costs are covered by the Citizens Association. For more information, please call Mary Potter (365-0420) who, for the third year, has volunteered to serve as the free swim coordinator.

BIRD WALKS GROW IN POPULARITY

The Saturday morning bird walks, organized by the Wild Bird Center at 7687 MacArthur Boulevard, have become so popular that additional group leaders are needed. The walks run from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. every Saturday and are free of charge.

Anyone who knows local birds and can volunteer one Saturday a month is asked to call Jeff Deitchman at the Wild Bird Center, 229-3141.
